

December 2009

Olympic Weightlifting New Zealand, has a new interim President, Mr. Richard Dryden.

Richard is well known in the Oceania region and also the Commonwealth. He has been involved with weightlifting for many years both as an administrator and as a coach.

Richard replaces Mr. Garry Marshall who resigned from the position as President in early December. Garry had held this position for quite a number of years.

The Federation also has a new Executive Officer in Mr. Terry Hughes from Christchurch.
